

Suggested reading for Year 6 (age 10/11) from WCCS

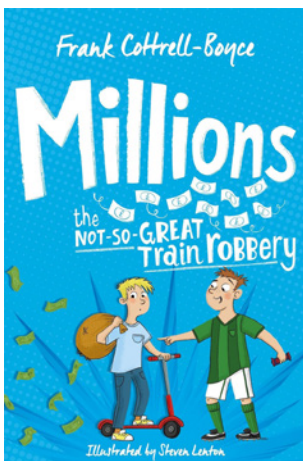

David Almond – Skellig

A poignant and mystical tale unfolds as young Michael befriends an enigmatic creature in his garage, discovering the power of hope and healing.

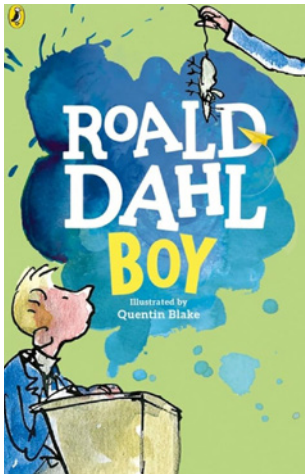

Judy Blume – Superfudge

Join the hilarious misadventures of the irrepressible Fudge Hatcher and his older brother Peter in this uproarious family comedy.

Frank Cottrell Boyce – Millions

After discovering a bag of money, two brothers embark on a heartwarming and imaginative journey exploring the true value of wealth.

Roald Dahl – Boy: Tales of Childhood

Delve into the whimsical and often humorous childhood anecdotes of one of the world's most beloved storytellers, Roald Dahl.

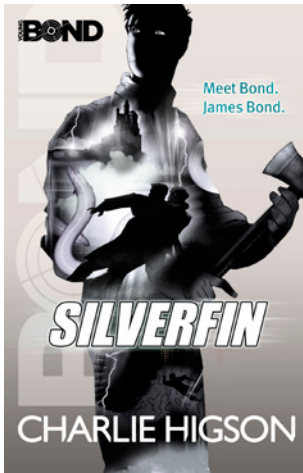

Neil Gaiman – Coraline

Venture into a dark and fantastical world with Coraline as she confronts a sinister parallel reality, testing her courage and resilience.

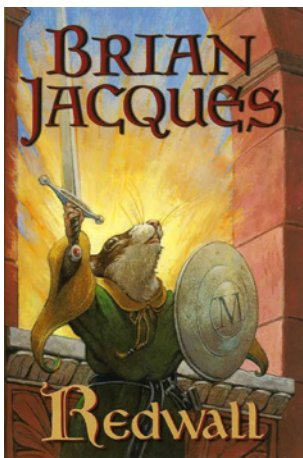

Neil Gaiman – The Graveyard Book

Raised by ghosts in a graveyard, Bod must navigate the challenges of both the living and the dead in this haunting and enchanting coming-of-age story.

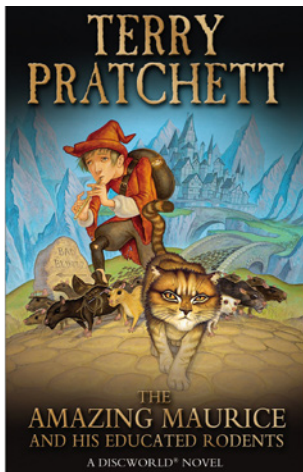

Charlie Higson – Silverfin

Join James Bond as a young boy at Eton College, where he unravels a mystery involving a dangerous villain and a sinister plot.

Brian Jacques – Redwall series

Enter the epic world of Redwall Abbey, where brave mice and woodland creatures band together to defend their home against the forces of evil.

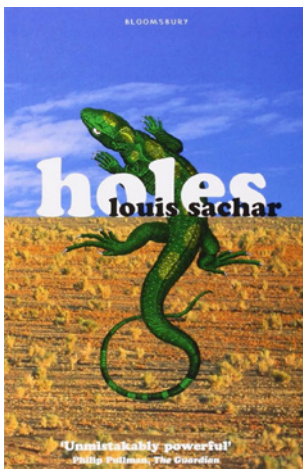

Terry Pratchett - The Amazing Maurice and His Educated Rodents

In Discworld, a streetwise cat named Maurice leads a group of intelligent rats in a clever and humorous adventure involving a pied piper scheme.

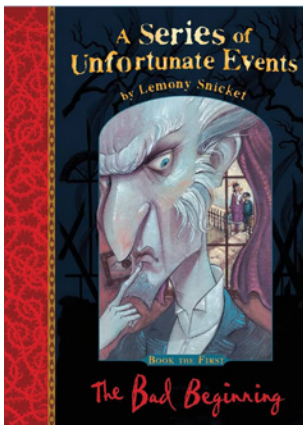

Lynn Reid Banks – The Indian in the Cupboard

Discover the magical world that unfolds when a young boy, Omri, discovers the extraordinary powers of a small cupboard.

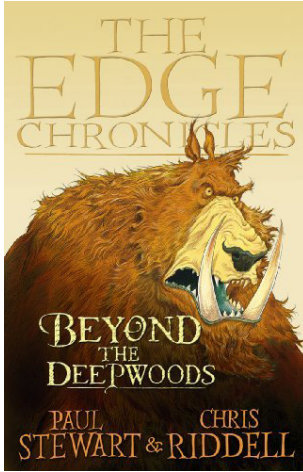

Louis Sachar – Holes

Sentenced to a juvenile detention center, Stanley Yelnats digs holes and uncovers a mysterious past, revealing a tale of curses, friendship, and hidden treasures.

Lemony Snicket – A Series of Unfortunate Events series

Follow the unfortunate lives of the Baudelaire orphans as they encounter eccentric villains and dark mysteries in this captivating series.

Paul Stewart & Chris Riddell – Beyond the Deepwoods

Embark on a fantastical journey with young Twig in the first book of the Edge Chronicles, encountering bizarre creatures and unforeseen challenges.

Dianna Wynne Jones – Howl's Moving Castle

Sophie is cursed by a witch to look like an old woman, and quickly takes refuge in the bizarre and fantastical castle of the elusive and mysterious wizard, Howl.

WCCS